CONTINUOUS HELP PLEA GUARDSMEN AID PROBLEM

Another Appeal for Donations Is Being Sent Out by Citizens' Welfare Association.

B. W. Guy, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee co-operating with the Citizens' Welfare Association for the relief of families of National Guardsmen, has reported that $40 more has been received for the relief fund. Those contributing were A. Lisner $25: Firemen's Association of the District of Columbia, $10, and Henry Winingder. $5.

According to Mrse. Alice I. Stuart, executive secretary of the Citizens' Welfare Association, some of the cases to which relief was extended last month have come back for the second time. Because of limited funds, the associa-tion was able only to extend relief for a short time, and now that the prob-lem of continued aid has come up, an-other appeal for funds is being sent Base Ball Game for Fund.

A base ball team from the Board of Trade will cross bats with one from the National Press Club next Wednesday at American League Park, at 3:30 o'clock. The proceeds will be turned over to the Citizens' Welfare Associa-

New plans for relief work probably will be worked out following the return of John Dolph and John Poole, president and treasurer, respectively, of the association, to Washington, Monday. Mr. Poole again will assume direct control of the finances of the association and a systematic campaign for the raising of funds will be started.

A number of local anglers who had planned trips on the upper Potomac early this week were disappointed when they learned that the water was too muddy for fishing. Reports, however, have been received that the water is clearing, and unless there are more heavy rains up in the mountains, it is expected the fish will be running soon again.

John Shear, P. H. Davis, P. W. Brooks and several others spent the week end at Rock point. They got out on the fishing grounds early Sunday morning and returned with many perch.

Reports of large catches of fish at Reports of large catches of fish at Colonial Beach have been received here. Ralph T. Edmonston of the Semmes Motor Company, who is spending his vacation at the resort, has been one of the successful anglers there. On a rocent trip to the fishing grounds Mr. Edmonston landed a large string of fish. On last Friday he was accompanied by two woman friends, who demonstrated their knowledge of angling, and when the return trip was made to the Beach several hundred members of the finny tribe were in the boat.

He went on to elaborate this statement by explaining that meat forms a stimulating diet, and tends to heat the blood. This causes people to become irritated and enter into quarrels which often end in the divorce court.

"The advance in the price of meats therefore will bring a milder man and a gentler woman." said the speaker. His redson for this statement is that the increasing high cost of meat will cut down the present enormous consumption of that article.

Crabs are reported to be quite plentiful at Chesapeake Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kloczewski were among those who brought home a large catch of crabs Sunday. They caught the shell-fish from the steamboat pier. Bert Daniels, William Kane, Diward Hughes and Capt. Walter Swann are on a ten-day fishing trip to the lower Potomac.
